

Seasonal Guide to Environmentally Responsible Pest Management Practices in Peaches and Nectarines

Walter Bentley, IPM Entomologist, UC Kearney Agricultural Center • Carolyn Pickel, UC Cooperative Extension Area IPM Advisor, Sacramento Valley • Janine Hasey, UCCE Farm Advisor, Sutter-Yuba Counties
Richard Coviello, UCCE Farm Advisor Emeritus, Fresno County • Mario Viveros, UCCE Farm Advisor, Kern County • Brent Holtz, UCCE Farm Advisor, Madera County • Harry Andris, UCCE Farm Advisor, Fresno County
Roger Duncan, UCCE Farm Advisor, Stanislaus County • Marshall Johnson, IPM Entomologist, UC Kearney Agricultural Center • Barbara Ohlendorf, Pest Management Guidelines Coordinator, UC Statewide IPM Program
Gary Van Sickle, Research Director, California Tree Fruit Agreement

University of California
Agriculture and Natural Resources
Publication 21625

The Stone Fruit Pest Management Alliance (PMA), a public-private partnership, is dedicated to the demonstration of environmentally responsible pest management practices for managing economic pests in peaches and nectarines. The partnership includes the California Tree Fruit Agreement, the California Cling Peach Board, UCCE Farm Advisors and IPM Advisors, the California Department of Pesticide Regulation, and the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) Region 9.