4-H Club Reports

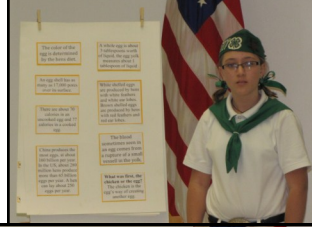

Dententer 4-H Club This year, one of the Fashion Revue projects is the Quilts for the Wounded Warrior Service Project. These handmade quilts will be used to fit gurneys, litters, and hospital beds. Some of the members, leaders, and 4-H supporters of Dententer have taken on this challenge. We are proud to announce that our first quilt has been completed by Debbie Dyer. Debbie Dyer was a former 4-H member and is, presently, the Dententer Foods leader and a Clothing leader. She has made a beautiful quilt. It is very patriotic with its blocks of red, white, and blue. There are three or four more quilts in the process of being completed. "Thanks, Debbie and all of you who are sewing quilts to contributing to this worthwhile service project." This month the members gave presentations. Everyone participated. It began with Michael Shurtz making a loud noise with his "Handmade Blow Horn." Next, Myles Shockley did a great job presenting "Potato man having a Siesta." He was followed by Erica Shockley, who treated the group to a presentation on "Holiday Yard Ornaments." Then, Alexis Armstrong gave everyone a lesson in "How to take care of a Hermit Crab." Brianna Fonseca showed us her crafting skills and love of horses in "Making a Plaque." Emily Dyer, Chloe York, and Victoria Zambrano showed us how to make a party prop in "Are you ready for a Poopy Party." Robert Shurtz showed us a good trick with his "Stinky Pen." Lastly, Sarah Shurtz, Emily Dyer, and Faith Fonseca demonstrated making potato people in "Potato Ville." The members were very creative in their presentation ideas. Submitted by Robert Shurtz
