Criteria For Evaluating Secretary's Book

The Secretary's Book should include the following:

1. Neat and complete cover.
2. Complete officer and leader information.
3. List of committees and the committee chairpersons and members.
4. Club roll complete and up-to-date.
5. Complete Calendar of Meeting and Events
6. Complete Meeting Plan for the Year
7. Complete minutes.
8. Club by-laws.

A neat and complete cover is desirable. Communications may be included but will not be considered necessary. Extra pages may be added and bound in a three-ring notebook.

You are permitted to use your computer or typed forms as long as they include the information asked for on each page of the 4-H Secretary's Book.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE SECRETARIES

Depending on the size and needs of the club, the secretarial duties can be performed by one person or shared by a recording secretary, a correspondence secretary, and even an attendance secretary. Together these officers would establish and maintain a secretary's binder containing club documents for the current program year. Computers can be used for writing minutes and maintaining a record of attendance.

Recording Secretary

General Duties

- Record the proceedings, or "take minutes," of each meeting.
- Set-up and maintain a secretary's binder for the program year. Include sections for: annual goals and annual program plans; the club roster and attendance; meeting minutes; committee reports; and correspondence.

At Club Meetings

- Sit next to the president at the front of the room.
- Stand and read minutes of the last meeting when the president calls for them to be read. Make corrections to the minutes if club members indicate they are needed.
- Record minutes of all meetings.
- Record all motions and the names of the people who make and second those motions. At the request of the president, read the motion aloud to the group at stated. Record changes to a motion. Enter the final motion and

Important Secretarial Jobs

- Write accurate minutes
- Update the roster of members
- Record attendance at meetings
- Write thank-you notes
- Reply promptly to correspondence
- Don't procrastinate! Write-up minutes and correspondence soon after each meeting while your memory and notes are fresh!

Meeting Minutes Should Include

- Date, place, and time of meeting
- Name of person presiding
- Action on previous minutes
- Treasurer's report
- Communications read
- Other officer's reports
- Committee reports
- Motions
- Description of program
- Description of recreation
- Announcements
- Date, place, and time of next meeting

membership vote in the minutes.

- Record the names of officers elected, committees appointed, and other business conducted during the meeting. Make note of the meeting's guest speakers and any demonstrations, entertainment, or activities that took place during the meeting.
- Record the treasurer's report in the minutes of the meeting.
- Keep a list of topics that are discussed and require further discussion at the next meeting ("unfinished business"). When called upon by the president, state the nature of any unfinished business that needs attention. If there is no unfinished business, state that to the president.
- Collect and file all committee reports.
- If you must miss a meeting, make sure that the secretary's binder gets to the meeting. The corresponding secretary or someone appointed by the president will take the minutes.

End of Year

- Give the community club leader a completed secretary's binder with minutes from all club meetings.
- As requested, assist the community club leader with enrollment paperwork for new members and leaders.
- Update the member roster.

Correspondence Secretary

General Duties

- When called upon by the president, read aloud to the club members any correspondence received by the club.
- Report on any letters you have written on behalf of the club since the last meeting.
- During the meeting, make notes of any correspondence that club members decide they want you to write.
- Send "thank you" notes to guest speakers and to people who make donations to the club.
- File all correspondence in the secretary's binder.

Attendance Secretary

General Duties

- Take roll at each club meeting and keep a record of attendance. This may be done by calling each name, by distributing a sign-in sheet, or by taking attendance as members arrive.
